1. The '81-'82 managers deserve a big thanks for all their help to the coaches and team members. The managers were Dave Wemhoff and Jeff Kudron.

2. The team's well-earned trophies. Stanton Freshman-Sophomore Tourney, Runner-up; Clearwater Holiday Tourney, Champions; and the Sandhills-Gateway Conference Tourney, Champs.

3. All-Conference team members: Greg Sjuts, first team; Mike Deger, first team (also All-State first team and Shrine All-Star game); Jeff Zach, second team.

The 1981-82 basketball teams led themselves to seasons of which they can be proud. The reserve team ended the season with a 10-2 record. They received the runner-up trophy in the Stanton Tournament, yet they put in a "champion" effort. The team members worked harder each day in practice and in the end it paid off.

The varsity team was an outstanding team which refused to give up until the end. Day by day they strived hard to make it to the top. Although that goal was cut a little short, the players were highly admired by many. The team ended their season with a loss to Shelby in the district semi-final game. The record stands at 19-2 with the only other loss to Tilden Elkhorn Valley.

The endless aching practices paid off with victories over the Ewing Tigers in the Clearwater Holiday Tournament finals and over the Clearwater Cardinals in the finals of the Sandhills-Gateway Conference Tournament.

After all the hard work and practices were over the varsity team ended the season with the second best record in the history of our school.

On the morning of February 20th, the Pep Club and Student Council gathered in the gym to begin decorating for that special night-Hearts '82. Many toilsome hours were spent putting up streamers of silver and shades of blue. The theme for this year's Hearts was "Open Arms." Before everyone left, they glanced back with a smile at what they had accomplished that day, and looked forward to that long awaited night.

When the night finally arrived, many were disappointed because some of the streamers fell. But even that couldn't dampen their spirits.

Punch was served after the announcements were made and all the congratulations were said. The night was highlighted by a fabulous dance provided by Sounds Unlimited.

As the dance drew to a close each person left with his own special memories of Hearts '82.

PEP RAILLIES

A new system for pep club was set up this year. The cheerleading squads were changed to a squad for boys' sports and a squad for girls' sports. The pep club members often found it hard to make it to so many games but there was always someone there to cheer.

The pep club had super teams to cheer for this year. Whenever the teams needed support, you could find the pep club members yelling.

They sponsored a beautiful Homecoming Dance, and worked with the student council to put on a very memorable Hearts.

SENIOR WILLS

I, Lisa Arlt, will to Jolene Streblov, the ability to control herself on weekends, and to the 12 Junior girls the ability to raise as much heck next year as we 4 Senior girls did this year?

I, Scott Chamberlin, being of sound mind and body will all my unused Bic Razors to Todd Finkral.

I, Michael Deger, will to Mr. Moss a basketball team that peaks during the season and not during the pep rallies; to Vicki Alderson, the rest of the handsome redheads left at HHS, except for Kenny which unfortunately leaves her with no one; and to Greg Sjuts, I will what was willed down to me which is to have 83 words in his will because I have 82 in mine. That way there'll be a limit on Greg's talking time next year.

I, Randy Ditter, will Greg Sjuts the courage to drive past the fraternity houses with the window open and to Scott Christensen my shot putting ability.

I, Darrell Dehmen, will to Randy Sander one gallon of Neet hair remover when needed and to Greg Sjuts snow for his portable ski slope, meaning his nose, and to Dale Albracht my ability to sing in music.

I, Monica Jean Hastreiter, will to Dale Albracht my straight A's so he can take advantage of privileges. To Mrs. Bomar my cows so she can love 'em to death at 5:15 every morning before school. To any and all party people a good time. To my favorite teacher, Mrs. Wolken, my pet spider "Charlie" for the April fools in this world!

I, Ron Krings, will to Glen Weidner what was willed down to me by Carl Jarosz, which was willed by Gary Bender, which was willed by Doug Zach, which was willed by Terry Sjuts, which was willed by Matt Brandl, which was willed by Randy Melcher, the ability to play grab. I also will to Glen Weidner what was willed to me by Carl Jarosz, the ability to get on the honor roll during your Senior year.

I, Kurt Labenz, will to Tim Meyer all of my shirts with snaps. To Kenny Maguire someone else's name to mispronounce. To any underclassman who wants to add excitement to the Ag Shop class, the ability to start a fire, and to Joe Classen the ability to stay high and dry while he is sleeping.

I, Steve Maguire, will to Russell Krings my height, to Kenny Maguire my weightlifting ability, to Scott Christensen my short shower in the locker room, to Mr. Rumsey the ability to keep his pond of guppies full, and to Cindy Krings my brain to do whatever she wants to do with it.

I, William J. Moser, being of unsound mind and haphazard body, do hereby bequeath to Darrell Dehmen and David Schrant, waterbeds to crash and burn, to Jeff Zach, the ability to make up new jokes, to any junior, the ability to cause trouble in Mr. Moser's American Government Class and not get caught, and to Dawn Melcher, anything, anytime, anywhere.

I, Dave Schrant, will to Dale Albracht, that which was willed to me by Dean Pfeifer, which was willed by Roy Widholm.

I, Greg Weidner, being here today and unsure of tomorrow, will Scott Christensen someone to push around and pick on next year, to Bob Herchenbach and Tim Meyer the leadership of the FFA, to Ron Krings a new deck of cards, to next year's football captains the ability to work hard on pushups, to Bob Herchenbach and Ken Maguire a new pair of Fruit of the Looms for each, to all students at HHS I will pride in this school because it is the best around.

I, Susie Weckman, will to Jolene Streblov, the right to take what she wants from anyone, to Linda Soeper, the ability not to get caught eating food in shorthand, to the Junior girls the ability to keep next year's freshmen girls under control! And last, but not least, I will to Charlotte Farrar, what my sister Shelley willed me, her privileges (you don't have to be smart) and also the ability to control her nicotine fits!

I, Jeff Zach, will my ability to get home at 12:00 to Glen Weidner, because that is usually what time Mom has dinner ready, to Greg Sjuts I will a bucket of chicken and a watermelon, to Tim Meyer a can of Folger's mountain grown, to Mary Kay Weidner I will my first name to love and cherish and hold close to her heart, and most of all to all the above and Bob Herchenbach included, the ability to keep your priorities straight and in order.

I, Carolyn Zavadil, will to Lisa Bender the name "Le Jap" and the ability to get home at 5 a.m. and find her parents asleep, and to Charlotte the ability to drive Mrs. Bruening crazy all year and still be her "favorite student."

WE would like to thank all the wonderful people who have helped us throughout the year to put this annual together.

First of all, thanks to Mr. Bill Jandric. He guided us in the direction of putting an annual together successfully.

Then there is our advisor, Mrs. Gail Bomar. She showed us and told us the rights and wrongs of planning and developing our book.

Last, but not least, we'd like to thank you, the students. Without you, we wouldn't have a yearbook of memories.
