WELCOME TO 1984

1. Kevin Kallweit, Terry McPhillips, Scott Bender and Randy Rosenthal give their speeches at the last pep rally of their basketball careers.

2. Mr. Irwin is caught in the act with his magic handkerchief.

3. "And this is called leaning on a friend." — Denise Fuxa and Teresa Mausbach.

4. Teri Kyncl's mug shot after being charged with stealing a rubber band from a first grader.

5. "I just can't get rid of Curt Brand. He hangs on me like this every day." — Craig Bender.

6. Michelle Gilmore looks like a cheery waitress today.

7. "She called this a doll? Why, anyone knows it's a truck." — Michelle Chaulk.

8. "So help me if you don't get out of here with that camera, this trophy is going up your nose!" — Scott Christensen.

SCHOOL DAY

REMEMBER THE BEST

1. It looks like another exciting noon hour at Humphrey Public School.

2. "You think you've got problems! I just had both of my legs run over by a car." — Mark Jarosz.

3. Donna Rosenthal thinks that the science book is a joke as Susan Weidner diligently studies the new fashion magazine.

4. Michelle Chaulk doesn't like anyone who makes fun of her Cincinnati baseball fan's club hat.

5. "We knew we were meant to be models." — Teresa Mausbach and Cindy Krings.

6. "And to think I've got 3 more years left here." — Jeff Kudron.

7. Mr. Ditter isn't having one of his better days.

8. We always knew that Kenny Meyer admired his grandmother, but isn't this going a little too far?

Opposite Page:

1. Pam out jumps her opponents.
2. Nice form Diane!
3. Shana shows her dribbling skills as Kerry follows close behind.
4. Another gunner from Vicki.

This Page:

1. Seniors and Captains: Vicki Alderson and Diane Hamling.
2. Student Managers: Front: Janine Wemhoff. Back: Yoko Yamashita and Lete Osten
3. Coaches: Dave Irwin and Teri Heitzman.
4. All-Conference: Vicki Alderson, Diane Hamling and Shana Sliva.
5. Sharri shows her Harlem Globetrotter ability by spinning the ball on her finger.

The 1984 basketball season ended exceptionally well for the Lady Bulldogs. Besides winning Conference for the third year running and Districts for the second year, they also won Regionals by defeating Chambers. They then moved on to State. Unfortunately, their season ended in the first round when they were defeated by Ansley. This year's record for the Lady Bulldogs was 18 - 4.

1. Raise your hands, if you're sure!
2. Sandy jumps above all the others.
3. Lady Bulldogs' defense is awesome!
4. Kerry jumps and grabs the ball at the same time! Incredible!

Graduation was held on May 12, 1984. Twenty-two seniors received their diplomas on that day. The seniors will always remember that day as being an end as well as a new beginning.

1. Junior Escorts were Ron Zach and Glenda Brant.
2. Superintendent Steve Deger provided the welcome and introduction.
3. Mr. Bob Knuth, a policy writer for the Department of Energy, gave the commencement address.
4. Programs were handed out by juniors Sheri Babel and Scott Rosenthal.

The 1984 graduates of Humphrey Public School: Vicki Alderson, Lisa Bender, Scott Bender, Sheila Brandt, Scott Christensen, Joe Classen, Tammie Fischer, Denise Fuxa, Diane Hamling, Kevin Kallweit, Cindy Krings, Teri Kyncl, Terry McPhillips, Kenny Maguire, Tammy Martensen, Teresa Mausbach, Don Palmer, Annette Pfeifer, Paula Purchal, Randy Rosenthal and Roger Streblow.

1. Diane H. tries to hold back the tears.
2. Don P. and Annette P. await the mass of congratulations.
3. Mr. Doug Moss and Miss Doreen Leptien were the senior class sponsors. They put up with us through our bickering, but they also helped us make good decisions. A special thank you goes to Mr. Moss and his wife for sponsoring us on our sneak trip to Worlds of Fun in Kansas City.

During the graduation ceremony, Mr. Deger announced the 1984 valedictorian and salutatorian who each addressed their families and friends.

1. Valedictorian Vicki Alderson earned a 96.33 average over her four years of high school.
2. Randy Rosenthal's GPA of 95.88 earned him the honor of salutatorian.

As a graduation tradition, after receiving the diplomas, the graduates presented their parents with a single rose in appreciation of their love and support.

Scholarships

Scholarships were awarded to five seniors.

1. Lisa Bender received a Presidential Scholarship to Wayne State College.
2. Diane Hamling was awarded a Businessmen's Scholarship to Spencer School of Business in Grand Island.
3. Annette Pfeifer received the President's Scholarship to Yankton College.
4. Denise Fuxa was awarded the Board of Governors Scholarship to Northeast Technical Community College.
5. Randy Rosenthal received a President's Scholarship from Kearney State College and the Regent's Scholarship from the University of Nebraska.

SENIOR CLASS WILLS

I, Vicki Alderson, will to Jodi Sliva the #14-15 basketball jersey and next year's Madison guard who wears it. Speaking of Madison, to Sandy Sjuts the ability to keep the highway hot when she gets the next chance. I will to Shana Sliva, which was willed from Jeff Zach to Glen Weidner to me, the ability to get home by 12:00 because that's what time mom has dinner ready. To Tammie Fischer I will the ability to always remember me and the good times we've had on our way to number 84, a goal we'll never reach. I will to any girl in the school the honor of being Mr. Moss's aide. And to Kurt McCallum the 10th of every month. May the rest be as happy as the first.

I, Lisa Bender, will to all juniors the ability to stay out of Chemistry class if they want senior privileges, and to Teresa Ternus the ability to "Go-pher" anything she wants!

I, Scott Bender, being of dirty mind and sexy body, do hereby will Ron Zach which was willed to me by Glen Weidner, from Ron Krings, from Carl Jarosz, the ability to get on the honor roll during your senior year. Also to Ron Zach I will which was willed to me by Glen Weidner, my armrest and/or equalizer and everything that goes with it. To Tim Pernicek I will "A Train A Common." To all the gabby people in HHS I will the ability to keep their noses in their own business. Last but not most important I leave the halls of HHS my ghost to roam and haunt the school FOREVER.

I, Sheila Brandt, will to Glenda Brandt some bugs and popcorn; to Mark Jarosz a car; to Sheri (Spacey) Babel some rocks and toothpaste; to Kenny Maguire the ability to remember what BCA stands for; to Mrs. Wolken a butler and a maid; and to Gaylene Zach the ability to talk on two feet.

I, Scott Christensen, will the following: to Paula Purchal everything and anything she needs and wants; to Scott Bender, a girlfriend; to Ron Zach what was willed to me from Glen W. from Ron K. from Carl J. from Gary B. from Doug Z. from Terry S. from Matt B. from Randy M., the ability to play grab. And most important because it's so important to them, I will to most of the girls (especially the Junior girls) their own News shows at 8, 12 and 10 o'clock. I will to each of them a tablet so they can write down the rumors they hear and repeat so often. That way they never have a day without gossip on their news shows. And to the rest of the people here at HHS the right to talk about the people who really like to gossip, as much if not more than they gossip about you. That way they will learn to mind their own business and shut their mouths.

I, Joe Classen, will: to Mike Hanzel the ability to style his hair by riding a Harley Davidson; to Terry McPhillips the ability to let his hair grow over his ears and not around his chin; to Joel Greisen a baby bottle and a box of diapers.

I, Todd Finkral, will what was willed by Roy Widhalm to Dean Pfeifer, from Dave Schrant, from Dale Albracht, which was willed to myself which I will to Tom Chamberlin. I will to Shana Sliva the ability to play her cards right, and to someone special, all my love.

I, Tammie Fischer, will Miss Heitzman's aide next year a watering can (if you are her aide, you'll know why), and the ability along with it to keep her brother-in-law's plant healthy; to Paula Purchal, the early edition; to Scott Christensen, the noon edition; and to both of them, the late edition; to Randy Rosenthal, a big THANKS in Computers and Advanced Math; to Yoko Yamashita a you-know-what in Japanese; to Vicki Alderson the rest of our 84 parties together and a bag of marshmallows; and to Greg Sjuts, a reserved seat at every Husker game (by me) and his very own co-ed basketball team.

I, Denise Fuxa, will to Gaylene Zach someone to take care of her in cornfields and bathrooms; to Terry McPhillips some B-B's and peaches, to Diane Hamling, a box of Yum-Yums and Hi Ho Crackers; to Randy Rosenthal, my sense of humor and someone else to give him static when I'm not around; to Kenny Maguire, some bubble gum so he doesn't chew straws; to Teresa Mausbach, the ability not to fall down at parties and someone else to play quarters with when I'm not around; and to Kevin Kallweit, his own magazine store so he doesn't have to go to Columbus every week for the new editions; and to Miss Heitzman someone else to blame her daily mistakes on.

I, Diane Hamling, will to Kenny Maguire a box of straws, to Mr. Rumsey someone to find all of his misplaced papers, to Denise and Teresa to go driving around again with a pack of gum that likes to go out the window and to tell the difference between a locust and a street light, and to Mrs. Wolken a helping hand at achieving her goal this spring.

I, Kevin Kallweit, will to Kenny Maguire some brains so he will realize he doesn't have any. To Scott Christensen, a razor that works more than once a month, and to Denise Fuxa the ability to SLAM ONE DOWN, and last but not least to Ron Chaulk what was willed to me by Greg Sjuts, which was willed to him by Mick Deger the ability to keep up the tradition of having 85 words in his will since I do have 84 in mine.

I, Cindy Krings, will to Shana Sliva, the Budweiser Brewing Company, and a new car like Dale's to throw up in. To Gaylene Zach my brother Dave and the permission to call me mom when she passes out in the bathroom. To the other two stooges, Denise and Teresa, insect repellent to spray in cars and at all those parties! To Mr. Scheet a new drug to help him keep his feet on the ground and some other gullible schmuk to be his aide. Just Kidding! And last and least to Kevin Kallweit, all my love and affection for all those wonderful years of friendship he gave me.

I, Russell Krings, will to Terry McPhillips to change his name to Dr. J. cause he's got all the same moves as him and to anybody that takes Typing II to get over a 60% on any of their papers and also to Roger Streblov to grow some feathers and fly to Monroe to look for some women and to Mr. Moss to believe me that I did my term paper all by myself; and to Mark Jarosz, Jodie Bender.

I, Teri Kyncl, will to anyone who goes out for golf in the years to come my ability to swing at the ball and miss but still hit the ceiling with the club. You have to be as good as me to do that. Also to Jeff all my love, and to all my friends a hopeful everlasting friendship.

I, Kenny Maguire, will to Mr. Moss a bottle of grecian formula 16. To Mark Bender my golfing ability (to plague him for life). To Mr. Brandl and Mr. Yates the ability to solve their girl problems in a civilized manner. To Mrs. Wolken a pair of high-heeled shoes. To Joel Greisen a dime and* to Tina anything she wants because she's worth it.

I, Tammy Martensen, will to Michelle Stock my brother Dennis and to Mr. Ramsey a yard stick to help keep his students in order. To the girls that are taking German, a row boat to row their way to Germany. To Jean and Joan Wemhoff the will to stay out of the front seat. To my cousin Karen some tools so she may become a brain. To Michelle Tomasiewicz a pair of rubber gloves for her hands when she does dishes.

I, Teresa Mausbach, will to Kenny Maguire an extra set of hands to search with; to Sheri Babel, I will my ability to walk over to St. Fran every morning; to Becky Gronenthal, all the fun times of working in the darkroom; to Sharri Sliva, I will my huggable bear pajamas because she looked so cute in them; to Gaylene Zach, I will a blindfold so she won't get nervous while others are driving; and to anyone that rides Mr. Moser's bus, my ability to get the honor seat.

I, Terry McPhillips, will to Mr. Moss to continue his ability to keep somebody in study hall to study English. To Russ Krings all the answers to every test in life and a special place to spit his skoal. To Joe Classen a motorcycle to replace his car. To Mark Jarosz and Ron Zach somebody elses locker to put their math books in. And finally to all the underclassmen, great memories of HHS.

I, Annette Pfeifer, will to any capable Junior, my ability to keep Mr. Rumsey informed of current jokes and stories.

I, Paula Purchal, insane after 13 years, will: to Mr. Scott Christensen almost anything and everything he needs and wants; to Miss Tammie Fischer and Mr. Greg Sjuts, to make the headlines on the 6 o'clock news; to Crazy Cos, a tow truck to take in Lincoln so he can park anywhere he wants; to Terry McPhillips, my pin-up poster of Michael Jackson; to Randy Rosenthal, my honorable Advanced Math grade that Miss Heitzman was so proud to give me; to Yoko, a big thank you for teacing me all those fun and dirty words; to the teacher's lounge, an air purifier; and to the class of 84, the very best of luck!

I, Randy Rosenthal, will to Mrs. Wagner someboyd who will work as hard as I did with the props, also somebody who helped as much as Terry did. To the band room someone who talked as much as Rob and I did during rehearsals. To Renee and Lisa someone to drive crazy. To Denise Fuxa a no-pest strip. To the cooks, another outstanding helper like me.

I, Roger Streblov, of sound mind and body will to Scott Bender and Scott Christensen the ability to get their new house. To Russell Krings my ability to fish and may the happy eagle fly over and land on his head. To Kevin Kallweit another TKO. To Kenny Maguire a little red hen and Duroc boar to play with. To Terry M. my ability to pay bills.

A Special Thank-You

This year's annual staff consisted of 17 hard-working students and one dedicated sponsor, Miss Doreen Leptien. This page is set aside to say a special "Thanks" to everyone who made this yearbook possible. Therefore, I dedicate this annual to you and your memories of H.H.S.

Memories

Memories linger,
Long after you're gone,
Quiet times remain;
Bright days still shine,
Now that you're gone.

Zimmatic® Generation 2.™ with PowerTrac.™

The technological evolution.

Zimmatic Generation 2 irrigation™ systems feature the new planetary PowerTrac gearbox. This new planetary design has proven to be the most energy efficient system in irrigation.

Everyone talks about the high cost of energy. Lindsay engineers did something about it. They designed the new PowerTrac drive train.

The PowerTrac's double-reduction planetary gears multiply and evenly distribute torque through an arrangement of a central sun gear, surrounding planet gears and a fixed ring gear.

The final reduction gear set, in turn, transfers this efficient gain and high torque to the wheel output shaft.

The planetary Power-

Trac allows straight-tooth contact between gears instead of the grinding action found with worm gears. The result is an increase in efficiency from roughly 35 percent for worm gearboxes to approximately 90 percent for PowerTrac. So, far less energy is required. And by substantially reducing friction, planetary gearboxes run cooler and last longer.

PowerTrac technology can also reduce the initial investment in a system. Lower energy requirements may allow generator sizes to be reduced up to 50 percent. Smaller wire can also be used. And, in many cases, standby charges will be less.

There is an alternative to higher operating costs. It's the system designed by computer. The Zimmatic Generation 2. See us today for complete details.
