Our time has come

Class of 2002

Precious Time

Casey-

Thanks for all the good memories. Keep your great personality and Best Wishes for a happy future.

God Bless You!

Love,

Dean, Mom & Family

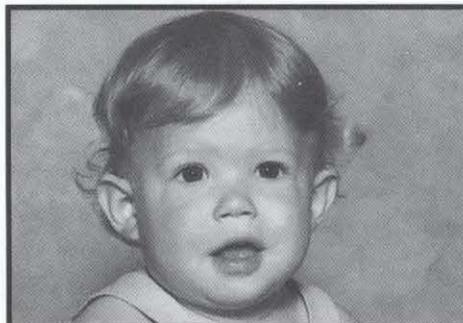

Ashley,

I'm so proud of you! Through the years it's been a joy to be your Mom! You have so many talents and wonderful qualities. I'm sure you'll succeed with confidence and ease with whatever you'll undertake in the future. Be happy and always remember how very special you are!

Love forever,
Mom

Congratulations Russell,
You have reached a milestone in your life. Enjoy your college years and the line of work you choose. We wish you many happy years ahead.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Curt-

You are the bittersweet end of many years of sending children to Humphrey Public School. You have done well and you take us out in style. We are so proud of you and we ask God's blessings in all you future plans. Remember no matter where life takes you, - we will always be here for you.

Our Love,
Mom & Dad

Dear Melissa (our baby)-
Where ever you go-
Whatever you do-
Our love will follow you!!
Congratulations!
Lots of Love,
Mom & Dad

Gene-
Good luck and best wishes in all you do in the future. Live life to its fullest.

Anne-
Your personality and ability to make people laugh are your best assets.
Remember to always wear your beautiful smile. We love you!
Mom & Dad

Ross,
We have always been proud of you.
We wish you the best in the future.
Love,
Mom & Dad

Class President: Amy Widhalm
Vice-President: Ashley Bradley
Secretary / Treasurer: Curt Greisen
Class Sponsors: Miss Kelly & Mr. Rumsey

Class Flower: Daisy
Class Colors: Burgundy,

Justin,
We can't believe how time has flown by your Senior year!
We wish you the best of luck in everything you do.
Keep Smiling!

Lori Lynn Mausbach,
You're so very special to us. We love you. Never change the way you are. We could never have asked God for anything more.
Love you,
Mom and Dad

Wendy,
Although we haven't always seen eye to eye and we've had our disagreements, there's not a day that goes by that we don't thank God for the privilege of raising a beautiful young lady like you. We hope we've succeeded in giving you a good set of roots, (faith, security and confidence), and a strong pair of wings (responsibility and independence). Remember attitude determines altitude and you were created to succeed.
We know you will do well.
Love, Nora & Chuck
P.S. Your mother said you were expensive, but we both agree you were worth the investment.

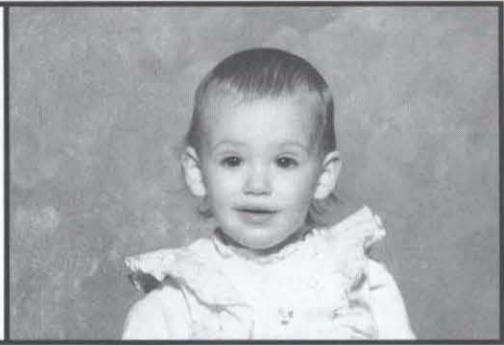

Billy,
Good luck and best wishes in all you do in the future. Live life to its fullest.

Lindsay,
"The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams."
-E. Roosevelt
Love,
Mom & Dad

Melissa,
"You did it!" You've worked hard & you can be proud of yourself, because we sure are. We love you.
Your Family

John,
Good luck and best wishes in all you do in the future. Live life to its fullest.

Congratulations Danie.
Your years of studying and participation have paid off.
Your hard work & pleasing personality will help you face
the new challenges that await you now that you have graduated. We are very proud of you and your many talents.
Love Mom & Dad

Amy,
We couldn't be happier with the choices you've made while growing up. Always remember that when we are miles apart, you are in our hearts. Our home is yours too, always.
Love
Mom & Dad

"Dream as if you'll live forever;
live as if you'll die tomorrow."

The cheer of the crowd as the Bulldogs score touchdown after touchdown, the looks on Coach Mach's and Coach Nelson's faces when they got water dumped over their heads, and the huddle of players and fans after the winning game against Rising City will never be forgotten at Humphrey High. As the Bulldogs broke a record loss of 45 games in a row at Humphrey High, it brought confidence to not only the athletes but the whole school. Justin Preister said, "It felt so awesome to win, and it really pumped us up for the rest of the season!" The bulldogs lost the rest of their games, but they did not come out empty handed. Andrew Bruhn said, "You play for the love of the game, not just to win. You win some you lose some."

It was a building year for the 2001 Humphrey High Lady Bulldog volleyball team. As usual, there were incoming players, but this year there was also a new coach, Sandi Kepler. It was her first year at Humphrey High. Players thought she was tough, but good. Mr. Persinger was the assistant coach.

The roster for the team was seniors Danie Ternus, Wendy Neville, and Lori Mausbach. These three were also the team captains. Juniors were Krystal Flamig and Carla Schwarz. Brooke LaBenz, Jenna Sliva, Amanda McPhillips, Teri Stepan, and Leiah Harris represented the sophomores. Freshmen were Brittany Werner, Melody Schrant, Lacey LaBenz, and Lacey Harris. The letter-winners of this year were Danie Ternus, Wendy Neville, Lori Mausbach, Krystal Flamig, Carla Schwarz, Amanda McPhillips, Brooke LaBenz, Jenna Sliva, and Brittany Werner. The players worked hard and were rewarded by winning a game against St. Edward. The other games were lost, but not without a fight.

This year, besides regular season games, the team also competed in several triangulars and tournaments. On September 11, the team traveled to Genoa where they competed in a triangular. They played St. Edward and Twin River. They won the St. Edward game, but lost the Twin River game. At an invite in Stanton, HHS played Clarkson and lost 12-15 and 6-15. At the Pope John Quad on October 9, the team played Newman Grove and Pope John. Unfortunately, both games were lost. On October 13, Humphrey High sponsored a tournament. The team played Norfolk JV, Prague, and Rising City, losing all three games. Three days later, on the 16, the team competed in a tournament at Elgin. They played Lutheran High Northeast, and Spalding/Spalding Academy. On October 20 and 23, they played in the Conference tournament and then on the 29, the girls competed in Sub-Districts.

HHS's boy's basketball team had another successful season on the court. They ended the season with a record of 7-13. The head coach was Mr. Brandl, with the help of the assistant coach, Mr. Nelson. Team captains this year were the four seniors, Ross Korth, Casey Borer, Curt Greisen, and Justin Laudenklos. Juniors were Matt Preister, Brian Bachman, Matt Fritz, and Jeff Brandl. Sophomores were represented by Andrew Bruhn and Joe Shriver. Derick Frauendorfer, Justin Ternus, Justin Preister, Garrett Flamig, Daniel Kallweit, and Adam Esparza were the incoming freshmen. The student manager was junior, Kyle Jones.

The Bulldogs had a great season. The team won over Clarkson on December twenty-first. On December twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth, the team triumphed by winning first place at the Benedict Holiday Tournament. On January fourth, the Bulldogs beat Prague with a score of 51-34. On the 17th the team triumphed over Rising City with a score of 52-46. In the sub-district game against Newcastle on February 18, the team won 57-43. They lost to Allen the next day, 39-41.

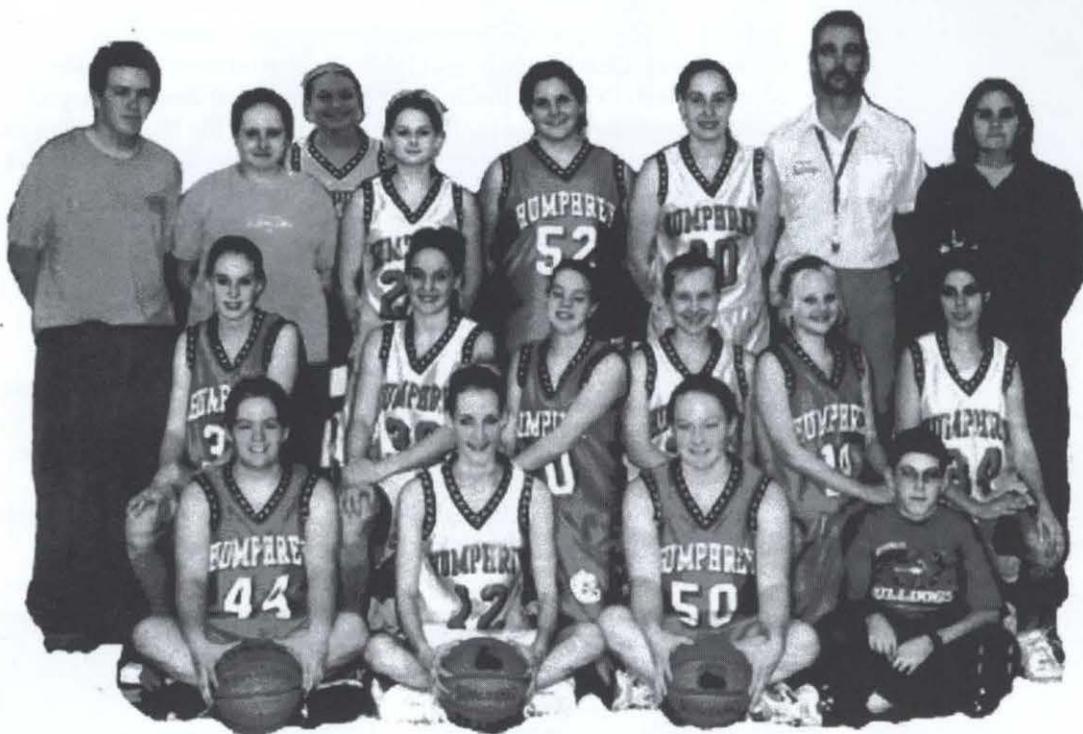

When asked how he thought the team played this season, Coach Nelson said, "They played hard all year but got caught short too many times."

two thousand and two

The Humphrey High girl's basketball team started off the season with good numbers and positive attitudes. They were able to play Varsity and JV the whole season. The team provided an exciting never-give-up style of basketball. One example of this style was the Benedict Holiday Tournament where the girls took a third place finish in overtime after trailing by ten, with little time left in the game. That was a game that will last in the hearts of the players for years to come.

Some of the more memorable moments include : Melissa R's- 3-point hook shot to end a quarter, Danie's- "Ow-Quit biting me!", Melissa G's- 3 pointer, 3 pointer, 3 pointer....., "How many is that?", Krystal's- body slam of one opponent, and Carla and Melissa R's- "Look out for those flying Luthern High Boys!"

The season was a good season with lots of leadership from the three seniors. Hopefully the following years can have the same good leadership and positive attitudes from the players.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Krystal glides over the hurdles with ease for the 110 hurdle race that helped her qualify for state.

two thousand and two

"The 2002 track season was one that had some good performances and athletes with good work habits," says Mr. Brandl. Mr. Brandl was this year's head track coach, and Mr. Nelson and Mr. Mach were assistant coaches. The 2002 track team included: Garrett Flamig, Derick Frauendorfer, Lacey Harris, Lacey Labenz, and Britney Werener from the freshman class. Sophomores were Jenna Sliva, Cory Gilsdorf, Brooke LaBenz, Darren Pfeifer, Teri Stepan, and Amanda McPhillips. Juniors were Matt Preister, Brian Bachman, Carla Schwarz, Krystal Flamig. Seniors were Lori Mausbach, Wendy Neville, Danie Ternus, and John Schure.

"The hard work and little luck made this year's track team fun," says Mr. Brandl. Hard work and little luck helped out Amanda McPhillips and Krystal Flamig head down to Lincoln for state. Amanda McPhillips qualified for state in the discus; and Krystal Flamig in the 110 high hurdles.

Senior Prophecies

Looking toward the future

Ashley Bradley: After graduation Ashley will go down to Phoenix, Arizona, and become a doctor. After a few years, Ashley will start missing Nebraska and come back to Creston to start her own hospital.

Melissa Gronenthal: She will join the WNBA and will hold the record for most three pointers.

Anne Huettner: She will become the manager of Slipknot and fall in love with the lead singer. They will be happily married and spend all their time traveling with the band.

Wendy Neville: Wendy will move to Phoenix and become a biologist. She will learn how to clone her dog Tinkerbelle, and then she will have ten chihuahuas.

Lori Mausbach: Lori will go to college and major in business. She will get married and have a large family, and of course, several cats.

Lindsay Richardson: Lindsay will go to college and work at a school for the deaf. She will keep those pink shoes she loves so much!

Melissa Ritz: After graduation Melissa will marry Ross. She will start to work on a modeling career, but will then decide to be a stay-home mom when their 3 daughters and 3 sons are born.

Danie Ternus: Danie will meet Derick Jeter at one of his baseball games, and get married. Danie will sing the "Star Spangled Banner" at all his home games.

Amy Widhalm: Amy will marry Heath Tuma and they will travel around the world. She will become a broadcast journalist and come back to Nebraska to visit friends whenever possible.

Casey Borer: Casey will go to Southeast and will still drive his ol' Bonneville around.

Russell Fraunendorfer: Russell will win the Guinness Record for loudest bass and become 80% deaf.

Curt Greisen: Curt will join the NBA and invent the battery-powered battery and the cordless extension cord.

Gene Haffner: Gene will become Hugh Hefner's heir and inherit everything. He will live ghetto fabulous and hope to someday be with his man Borer again.

Ross Korth: Ross will marry Melissa after graduation. He will work at Mark's Woodworking in Creston and take his boys hunting whenever possible.

Justin Laudenklos: Justin will go to the University of Wyoming and become the water-boy for the basketball team.

Billy Preister: Billy will own his own salvage yard and used-car lot, but none of the cars will be for sale.

John Schure: John will become a mechanic, quit, become a band teacher, quit, become a history teacher, quit, and then finally decides he wants to be a mechanic.
